

Received the ~~twenty~~ day of November 1641 of William Holst of London goldsmith the sum of one hundred pounds of lawful English money being promised to be paid back again with and for months lent towards the loan of fifty thousand pounds, desired by the Lords and Commons house of Parliament, for the suppressing of the Rebels in Ireland, which, by order of the Court of Aldermen, is to remain in the Chamber of London, untill security be given for the repayment thereof, to the liking of the Court of Aldermen, together with such damages of and for the same after the rate of 8. L per centum for a year from the time that the same is so advanced, untill it shall be repaid. I say received

100. 00 - 00

Geo: Titmore